ORDER

1. One of the questions which requires our answer in these appeals is whether the prosecution is obliged to explain the injuries sustained by the accused in the same occurrence and whether failure of the prosecution to so explain would mean that the prosecution has suppressed the truth and also the origin and genesis of the occurrence. Since this Court has taken divergent views on these points, as would appear from the cases referred to in the judgment of this Court in Hare Krishna Singh v. State of Bihar , besides others, we feel that the point should be settled by a larger Bench. Let these papers be placed before the learned Chief Justice for necessary orders.
