

Supreme Court of India

S. B. Jain, I.T.O. Nagpur vs Mahandera on 7 September, 1971

PETITIONER:

S. B. JAIN, I.T.O. NAGPUR

Vs.

RESPONDENT:

MAHANDERA

DATE OF JUDGMENT 07/09/1971

BENCH:

ACT:

Income-tax Act, 1961, s. 297(2)(d)(ii)-Income-tax Act, 1922, S. 34(1)(a)--Notice under latter Act held beyond time..If proceedings pending within meaning of s. 297 (2) (d) (ii).

HEADNOTE:

The Income-tax Officer issued a notice to the respondent on January 5, 1962 under s. 34(1) (a) of the Indian income-tax Act, 1922, seeking to reopen his assessment for the assessment year 1945-47. The respondent challenged the validity of that notice. The High Court quashed the impugned notice by its order dated March 6, 1963 on the ground that the notice was issued beyond the time prescribed by law. On April 1, 1962 the Indian Income-tax Act, 1961, came into force. Under s. 297(2) (d) (ii) of this Act if "any income chargeable to tax had escaped assessment within the meaning of that expression in s. 147 and no proceedings under s. 34 of the repealed Act in respect of any such income are pending at the commencement of this Act, a notice under s. 148 may .... be issued with respect to that assessment year. . . . " The Income-tax Officer again issued a notice under s. 148 of the New Act in respect of the assessment which he earlier unsuccessfully sought to reopen by means of notice under s. 34(1) (a) of the 1922 Act. The respondent again challenged the validity of the notice. The High Court quashed that notice on the ground that the Income-tax Officer was not competent to issue that notice. In appeal to this Court it was contended that the notice under s. 34(1) (a) being an invalid notice on the ground that it was barred by limitation the proceedings initiated on the basis of the notice should be considered as not pending when the new Act came into force. Dismissing the appeal,

HELD : What s. 297(2)(d)(ii) requires is the factual pendency of a proceeding under s. 34 of the repealed Act. Whether that proceeding was barred by limitation or not is irrelevant. The proceedings pending before a competent authority cannot be said to be not pending merely because no relief can be granted in that proceedings because of the bar of limitation. The proceedings in the present case were initiated by a competent authority and those proceedings were quashed for the reason that the notice was issued beyond the time prescribed by law. Hence it cannot be said that no proceedings under s. 34 of the 1922 Act, either factually or legally, was pending at the time when the new Act came into force. [617 D]

JUDGMENT:

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION: Civil Appeals Nos. 1301 of 1971 and 1981 of 1968.

Appeals by special leave from the Judgment and order dated November 15, 1956 of the Bombay High Court, Nagpur Bench in Special Civil Application No. 150 of 1963. B. Sen, J. Ramamurthy, R. N. Sachthy and B. D. Sharma, for the appellant (in both the appeals).

A. S. Bobde, G. L. Sanghi and B. R. Agarwal, for the respondent (in both the appeals).

The Judgment of the Court was delivered by Hegde, J. Civil Appeal No. 1301 (NCT) of 71 is by special leave. This appeal was filed under the following circumstances Civil Appeal No. 1981 of 1968 was brought on the strength of a certificate issued by the High Court. That certificate, being not in accordance with law in as much as the High Court gave no reason in support of the same, the appeal filed on the strength of that certificate turned out to be not maintainable. Hence the appellant had to move this Court for special leave to appeal against the judgment of the High Court. The same having been granted he has brought Civil Appeal No. 1301 of 71. Hence these two appeals against the same judgment.

Now coming to the merits of the case, the Income-tax Officer issued a notice to the respondent on January 5, 1962 under section 34(1) (a) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 seeking to reopen his assessment for the assessment year 1946-47 the relevant accounting year being the calendar year 1945. The assessee respondent challenged the validity of that notice by means of a writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution before the High Court of Bombay. The High Court accepted that writ petition, and quashed the impugned notice by its order dated March 6, 1963. On April 1, 1962 the Income-tax Act, 1961 came into force. Thereafter the Income-tax Officer again issued a notice on March 26, 1963 under section 148 of the new Act in respect of the very assessment which he earlier unsuccessfully sought to reopen by means of a notice under section 34(1) (a) of the 1922 Act. The assessee again challenged the validity of the notice issued to him by means of another writ petition, before the High Court of Bombay. The High Court quashed that notice on the ground that the Income-tax Officer was not competent to issue that notice. It is against that decision, the present appeals have been brought to this Court.

Section 147 of the 1961 Act provides : If-

(a) the Income-tax Officer has reason to believe that, by reason of the omission or failure on the part of an assessee to make a return under Section 139 for any assessment year to the Income-tax Officer or to disclose fully and truly all material facts necessary for his 'assessment for that year, income chargeable to tax has escaped assessment for that year, or

(b) notwithstanding that there has been no omission or failure as mentioned in clause (a) on the part of the assessee, the Income-tax Officer has consequence of information in his possession reason to believe that income chargeable to tax has escaped assessment for any assessment year, he may, subject to the provisions of Sections 148 to 153 assess or re-assess such income or re-compute the loss or the depreciation allowance, as the case may be, for the assessment year concerned (hereinafter in Sections 148 to 153 referred to as the relevant assessment year)".

Section 148 reads "(1) Before making the assessment, re- assessment or re-computation under Section 147, the Incometax Officer shall serve on the assessee a notice containing all or any of the requirements which may be included in a notice under sub-section. (2) of section 139; and the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly as if the notice were a notice issued under that sub-section. (2) The Income-tax Officer shall, before issuing any notice under this section record his reasons for doing so."

Section 149 prescribes the time limit for issuing a notice under Section 148. Sub-section (i) of Section 149 says: "No notice under Section 148 shall be issued-

(a) in cases falling under Clause (a) of Section 147-

(i) for the relevant assessment year, if eight years have elapsed from the end of that year, unless the case falls under sub-clause

(ii);(ii);...."

Section 297 deals with repeals and savings. Section 297 2 (d) (ii) reads thus :- "Notwithstanding the repeal of the Indian Incometax Act 1922 (ii) of 1922 (hereinafter referred to as the repealed Act) (d) where in respect of any assessment year after the year ending on the 31st day of March 1940 :

(i).....

(ii) any income chargeable to tax had escaped assessment within the meaning of that expression in Section 147 and no proceedings under section 34 of the repealed Act in respect of any such income are pending at the commencement of this Act, a notice under Section 148 may, subject to the provisions contained in Section 149 or section 150, be issued with respect to that assesment year and all the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly". (Emphasis supplied).

The only question for decision in these appeals is whether the proceedings initiated by the notice under section 34(1)

(a) of the 1922 Act were pending at the time when the new Act came into force. It is not denied that such proceedings were factually pending. But what was contended by Mr. B. Sen, learned counsel for the department was that that notice being an invalid notice on the ground that that was barred by limitation, the proceedings initiated on basis of that notice should be considered as not pending in the eye of the law. We are unable to accept this contention. What section 297 (2) (a) (ii) requires is the factual pendency of a proceeding under section 34 of the repealed Act. The question whether that proceeding was barred by limitation or not is irrelevant. It is not denied that those proceedings were initiated by a competent authority. Those- proceedings were quashed for the reason that notice under section 34 of 1922 Act was issued beyond the time prescribed by law. Hence it cannot be said that no proceeding under section 34 of the 1922 Act either factually or legally was pending at the time when the new Act came into force.

Our above conclusion receives support from the decision of this Court in Raja Kulkarni and others v. The State of Bombay(1). Therein the question that arose for decision was whether an appeal under section 24 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1950 can be said to have been pending if that appeal was incompetent or invalid for some reason. This Court ruled that what was necessary was the factual pendency of the appeal and not that it should have been a valid or competent one under the provisions of the limitation Act or such other adjectival law.

The proceedings pending before a competent authority cannot be said to be not pending merely because that no relief can be granted in that proceedings because of the bar of limitation. In Mela Ram & Sons v. Commissioner of Income Tax, Punjab(2) it was contended before this Court that any appeal which is barred by limitation cannot be considered as an appeal properly presented under Section 30 of the Indian Income Tax Act, 1922. This Court rejected that contention observing :

(1) [1954] S.C.R. 384.

(2) 29 I.T.R. p. 607.

"it an appeal is not presented within that time (within the prescribed time) does that cease to be an appeal as provided under section 30(1) ? It is well established that rules of limitation pertain to the domain of adjectival law, and that they operate only to bar the remedy but not to extinguish the right. An appeal preferred in accordance with Section 30(1) must, therefore, be an appeal in the eye of law, though having been presented beyond the period mentioned in section 30(2) it is liable to be dismissed in limine."

We have no doubt in our mind that the proceedings initiated under Section 34(1) (a) of the 1922 Act were pending at the time 1961 Act came into force and that being so the Income- tax Officer was not competent to issue any fresh notice under section 148 of the 1961 Act.

In the result Civil Appeal No. 1301 of 71 fails and the same is dismissed with costs. Civil Appeal No. 1981 of 68 is dismissed as not being maintainable. Parties to bear their own costs in this appeal.

K.B.N.
dismissed.

Appeals